Shake n Bake take the crown!

A very cold night greeted 21 teams. Thermals were the order of the day/night!

A slow start for practice with only Shake n Bake in the 49 seconds. A few of the drivers felt the karts were off pace and decided to change them in practice. All karts had been tested but due to the track conditions being greasy and air temperature dropping the times were a couple of seconds down. Every second counts apparently!

Shake n Bake took pole for the 5th time, with a superb drive into 2nd on the grid for Team 2007. Nip & Tuck 3rd, and GPL 4th, Grand Pre 5th, Goodgame Racing 6th, Turn & Burn 7th, KP Nuts 8th, Dogz 9th, Spin Doctors 10th, BAR Honda 11th, Steptoe & Son 12th, Dukes of Essex 13th, Lift Away 14th, Team Chicken 15th, The Old Gits 16th, The Anthill Mob 17th, Norfolk n Chance 18th, Spongebob Squarepants 19th, Crash & Burn 20th and Still Game 21st.

As the lights went to green Shake n Bake roared off into the distance with Team 2007 close behind and only 10 seconds between 2nd and 10th. The penultimate round of the Enduroseries 2007 was to be a close exciting race.

The grid stayed close for the first 15 minutes, whilst the drivers were getting used to the conditions and their extremities were numbing! Nip & Tuck found a gap and squeezed through to take 2nd on lap 15.

At 20 minutes Dogz were down in 17th, and BAR Honda now 10th from 7th. Team Chicken were getting quite dizzy as they again spun on the greasy damp track, but carried on holding onto 16th position.

With driver changes over and the first drivers all in the club house with their hot chocolate, the second drivers took charge. Shake n Bake now had a 20 second lead ahead of Team 2007, who were a lap ahead of the other 19 karts. Nip & Tuck were back to 3rd and GPL working their way through the field of back markers to 4th. Lap after lap Nip & Tuck were held up by back markers. They had their sights on 2nd place.

Grand Pre and KP Nuts both wanting the same piece of tarmac with BAR Honda catching the battling pair. KP Nuts held their line and took 7th, leaving Grand Pre now holding off BAR Honda for 8th.

10 minutes to go and again positions at the front of the pack changed with the exception of Shake n Bake who were half a lap ahead making it look as though it was a bright, warm summers night and clocking up the fastest lap of 49.562. Team 2007 in 2nd and GPL 3rd were having a great battle with Nip & Tuck joining in on the fun.
